THE STADIUMS

PNC ARENA

Originally called the Raleigh Entertainment and Sports Arena and formerly the RBC Center, the PNC Arena is home to the Wolfpack men's basketball home games. It was in 2012 when the Royal Bank of Canada (RBC Bank) was out-bought by Pittsburgh National Corporation (PNC Financial Services), along with its 20-year naming rights to the arena. Seating over 20,000 fans, PNC is the second largest arena in the ACC and the eighth largest in the NCAA. Photos contributed by Roger Winstead and Marc Hall.
