

THE NC STATE CLASS RING is a testament to your success as a student and your allegiance to your alma mater.
WEAR IT WITH PRIDE

ADVERTISEMENT

THERE'S NO OTHER CLASS RING LIKE IT IN THE WORLD.

THE NC STATE CLASS RING COLLECTION was designed specifically for our university in 2005 by a committee of students, alumni, faculty and staff. Its distinctive features capture the NC State spirit and tradition through symbols you're sure to recognize - no matter how long ago or how recently you graduated.

As an alumnus, you wear the ring with the university name facing outward. As a student, you wear it with the university name facing inward until you're instructed to turn it at Commencement.

As a student with 60 hours and junior status, you are eligible to receive your class ring at a semiannual ceremony at the Park Alumni Center. The rings are stored overnight in the Alumni Memorial Belltower, symbolically connecting them to campus and to other ring-wearers.

The NC State Class Ring is a testament to your success as a student and your pride and loyalty as an alumnus. It's not a piece of jewelry destined to sit in a box. It's meant to be worn with pride - to show the world you are Red & White for Life.

Alumni and qualifying students can purchase the class ring online anytime or at the NC State Bookstores at the start of each semester.

