ARTS AT NC STATE

DANCE PROGRAM

Students who are interested in dancing can get direct experience in choreography and performance. The Dance Program offers two student performance companies, the NCSU Dance Company and the Panoramic Dance Project, as well as dance technique classes. Additionally, interested students can take ballet, jazz, modern, social dance, tap, clogging and composition as PE classes.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

The volunteer student theater group functions under the direction of a full-time professional staff to produce eight to 10 shows each season — five main season shows, a summer TheatreFest repertory season of three plays, a diversity play and a student studio production. Productions usually take place in Thompson Hall.

CENTER STAGE

Arts NC State also arranges an array of performances — many free to students — from professional artists throughout the year. For more than 35 years, Center Stage has brought practitioners of jazz, dance, world music and drama to the University.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

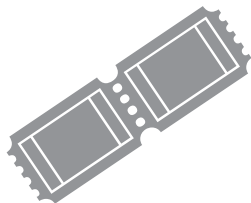

Students with musical ability can take advantage of educational and performance opportunities through the Music Department's variety of musical groups and academic courses. The department houses three choral ensembles, eight instrumental ensembles — including the marching band — and two affiliated student a cappella groups, the Grains of Time, for males, and the Ladies in Red, for females.

GREGG MUSEUM

Once located in Talley Student Union and soon to relocate to the former chancellor's residence, the Gregg Museum of Art and Design showcases textiles, ceramics, folk art, photography, architectural drawings and modern furniture through its six to eight exhibitions each year.
