

Led by MATTHEW DEMETRIOUS, the ROWING CLUB at NC State practices on Lake Wheeler. Photo by Karin Eriksson.

getting in the game

STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN INTRAMURAL SPORTS, LEARN TEAMWORK

In addition to 23 varsity sports, there are 52 different club sports on campus, ranging from popular sports like soccer, basketball, hockey, and gymnastics to more unusual sports like aikido, badminton, ballroom dance, cricket, and rowing.

Part of University Recreation, club sports are all registered student organizations responsible for their own expenses. The clubs compete against other universities in games or matches, tournaments, and championships.

Intramural sports include basketball, bowling,

INTRAMURAL

For more information on how you can get involved, stay active and build team comradery, visit recreation.ncsu.edu/intramural racquetball, softball, badminton, and 4-on-4 flag football, with eight intramural leagues and special events for players of all skill levels.

Leagues are divided into different divisions of fraternities, sororities, residences, males, females, and co-recreations.

The intramural sport I participated in was _____