SPIRIT, FRIENDSHIP, LEADERSHIP, SERVICE AND PHILANTHROPY

Greek organizations give students an opportunity to get involved on campus, meet other students, and make memories.

Social fraternities and sororities provide opportunities for about 2,500 students on campus.

The principles of service, scholarship, leadership and sisterhood or brotherhood guide all of the Greek organizations on campus.

For most, recruitment occurs in the fall with a rush process, where you have the chance to meet members and find your best fit. Organizations evaluate candidates on a range of criteria including academics, leadership experience, volunteerism and involvement. Not all organizations take freshmen, and the process can vary greatly from council to council and chapter to chapter.

GREEK LIFE FACTS

Campus leadership and involvement

About 79 percent of members belong to other student organizations on campus, many in leadership roles.

Scholarship

Affiliated students are 3 percent more likely to graduate than their non-affiliated peers.

Service & philanthropy

Greek Life members volunteered more than 50,000 hours in the University and surrounding community in 2011. In addition, chapters hosted 117 events to raise both awareness and money for charity. Donations exceeded $203,000.
